Invites You to Participate In

In the 2019 Kinzua Fly Fishing Workshop

No Experience Necessary

Beginning and intermediate fly fishers; male and female ages 10 to adult are welcomed. This workshop is not only for the novice fly fisher but also for the fly fishing addict that wants to become more proficient. We have designed our curriculum to meet the needs of the individual allowing for a challenging as well as fun educational experience for all.

Equipment & Materials

All fly tying materials and equipment will be provided. We highly recommend students using their own fly rods. We can supply loaner rods if needed. Fly tiers will be divided during the evening choice curriculum into a beginners group and an experienced group. No experience is necessary.

Field Casting Sessions

We will teach casting in a large grassy area right outside the hotel near our classroom. Carl and Steve have been teaching with fly fishing legend Joe Humphreys the past 25 years and will be utilizing his unique casting progressions and drills. They challenge and improve the casting skills of beginners as well as the intermediate fly fishers.

Classroom Sessions

The classroom sessions will be held in the very large and beautiful ballroom of Chautauqua Harbor Hotel. We will be utilizing audiovisual presentations, power points, discussions and the evening sessions will include choice curriculum.

Arrival & Departure

Check-in for the workshop begins at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, followed by dinner at 5:00 pm and Classroom at 6:00pm Check out is scheduled for 11:30 am Sunday.

Lodging

The hotel's deluxe guestrooms and suites are generously sized, many featuring panoramic lake views and balconies. All are beautifully appointed with wood floors, luxurious bedding, plush bathrobes, green amenities, and in-room refrigerators.

Meals and Housing

All meals will be in the HARBOR HOTEL PIER BALLROOM
